MARINES' HARD GO WITH SOLDIERS

SEAMEN BEST LANDFIGHTERS AFTER PIERCE BATTLE, SCORE BEING FIVE TO FOUR.

Those persons who went to Ala park yesterday afternoon expecting to see a tight game between the Infantry and Marine baseball teams found all they were looking for. It was not that the playing was so good that the scoring was low, for errors were made by the dozens; but the contest was certainly hard fought out. Both teams were of strength. The Cavalrymen were particularly droopy on account of the absence of their catcher, Bateman, who is in the hospital. This was offset, however, by the illness and absence of Davis, captain of the Marine team, one of the best batters of the league. Other prominent members of both teams were absent.

During the game the players were frequently shifted or replaced. This was particularly true of the Cavalry bunch. Their men were changed so often as to confuse both the official scorers and newspaper men.

During most of the game it looked like a victory for Fort Shafter. Up to the last half of the eighth inning the Marines trailed behind, but in that half made the two runs that settled the day in their favor.

The game started with the Fort Shafter's bat, and McCall took first on dead ball. Moran hit for one bag. Lemm landed for a single, but Moran was retired at second. Rowe hit safe, scoring McCall. Ellis fanned and on passed ball by catcher, Lemm ran in. Gongol fanned. For the Marines, Hayes flew out to Ellis. Williams hit safe. Gaw flew out to Rowe and Williams was caught off first.

In the second, Oakley, of the Infantry, fanned. Boloun hit for a bag. Ramsey walked. McCall flew out to Call and Ramsey was thrown out at first. Of the Marines, Call walked, stole second but was thrown out at third. Hines walked and Knight hit for a single. Hines tried to steal third but died. Thompson drove for two bags and Knight romped. Thompson fanned on a try for third.

The Shafter's came up in the third inning and Moran flew out to Hayes. Lemm died at first and Rowe flew out to Gaw. The Marines fared little better. Makin hit safe. Kilgore flew out to Rowe. Makin was caught off first and Hayes died there.

In the fourth, Ellis and Gongol, of the Shafter's, flew out to Thompson. Oakley walked. Boloun flew out to Call. For the Marines, Williams fanned, Gaw died at first and Call flew out to Ramsey.

Ramsey died at first in the fifth, giving the Shafter's a bad start. McCall, however, hit safe and was followed by Moran. Just then there were a couple of wild throws, McCall scoring and Moran pulling up to third. On Lemm's safe, Moran took the plate. Rowe fanned. Lemm was caught off third. Of the coral packers, Hines died at first. Knight struck for two bags. Thompson, however, died at first and Makin flew out to Holoun.

In the sixth, Ellis, of the Fort Shafter's, hit safe and was followed by Gongol. Oakley flew out to Hines and Gongol was thrown out on a double play. Boloun died at first. Marines up, Kilgore flew out to Lemm. Hayes landed a two bagger and was followed immediately by a home run hit by Gaw. Call flew out to Gongol.

In the seventh, Ramsey, of the soldiers, died at first. McCall took first on dead ball. Moran hit single. Lemm died at first. Rowe flew out on foul. Hines, of the Marines, died at first. Knight hit safe. Thompson died at first and Knight was thrown out on double play.

In the eighth, Ellis came up for the Shafter's and died at first. Gongol hit safe. Oakley struck for one bag but was thrown out on a run for second. Gongol was thrown out in the same way. Marines up, Makin hit safe. Winters hit for a bag, and on a wild throw Makin scored and Winters moved up to third. On Hayes' safe, Winters took the plate. Hayes was thrown out at second. Williams hit safe, but was thrown out on a try for second. Gaw struck for two bags and stole third. Call died at first.

This led to the ninth innings. Boloun, of the Fort Shafter's, fanned. Ramsey flew out to Hayes. McCall hit safe and was followed by Moran. Lemm flew out to Hines.

THE CHINESE AND AALAS TIE AGAIN

Although the crowd was perhaps smaller than Sunday week, when the National Guards and Marines had their great game, Aala park was lined with people many deep yesterday afternoon to witness the two championship baseball games set for that place. In the early stages of the first game the sun was out strong and the afoot spectators suffered considerably from the heat. Later, however, clouds and a light breeze from the valleys made it more pleasant.

The first game of the day was a desperate contest between the C. A. C. and Aala teams for the championship. These teams, it will be remembered, tied for the pennant in the regular series and are now engaged in playing off the tie in three games. Yesterday week the C. A. C. team won by a narrow margin, and an immense number of yesterday's spectators were confident that the Chinese would again come out ahead, thus capturing the prize.

And it certainly looked that way at one stage of the game, but in the seventh innings the Aalas started in to do battle in such way that everything was swept before them. The final score was 6 to 2 against the Chinese. This again ties the contest and it will take another game next Sunday to decide it.

Up to the seventh innings only one run had been made. This tally was by En Sang, of the C. A. C.'s after a couple of safe hits. In the seventh inning, Mark succeeded in reaching the plate, giving the Chinese the two runs of the day. It was in the last half of the seventh that the Aalas got busy, and here is what they did:

Luning took first on balls. Leandro hit for a bag, but Luning was thrown out at second. Leslie hit for one bag, but Leandro was thrown out at second. Feigler took first on balls. Then De Ponte drove as fine a home runner as was ever seen at Aala park, sending the ball to Beretania street, scoring Leslie, Feigler and himself. Akana went out on foul.

In the eighth inning, Siag Chong, of the Chinese, walked. Hong Chack flew out to De Ponte. Chi Bui died at first and Asam flew out to Johnson. Aalas up, Johnson flew out to Mark. Souza, Pedro and Luning walked. Leandro out on foul. Leslie hit safe, scoring Souza and Pedro. Feigler hit for one bag, scoring Luning. De Ponte fanned.

In the ninth inning En Sang hit for one bag and Mark walked. Ako hit safe. Apau fanned. Alona died at first, and En Sang failed at the plate.

WHITE AND WEIGHT WIN GOLF MATCH

The foursome (handicap) tournament of the Golf Club at Moanalua yesterday attracted a large number of spectators. Charles Weight and Austin White finished last in the series in which fourteen players took part.

In the first round the winners were as follows: Munro and Klebahn defeated H. Walker and R. A. Jordan, four up and three to play; S. G. Wilder and Captain Falls defeated C. A. Hartwell and J. Mackinnon, two up and one to play; E. O. White and H. A. White, D. W. Anderson and A. Jordan, four up and three to play; A. White and C. S. Weight, bye.

In the semi finals Munro and Klebahn defeated Wilder and Falls, four up and three to play; A. White and C. S. Weight bested E. O. White and H. A. White, three up and two to play.

In the finals Austin White and C. S. Weight won over Munro and Klebahn, three up and two to play.

A medal play of the club will be held at the Country Club on May 31, which will be observed as Decoration Day.

PORTUGUESE WILL PLAY BASEBALL

The Portuguese societies, which did good baseball work last year, will be in the field again in the next few weeks. A meeting will be held early in June for the purpose of arranging the schedule, and the series will begin immediately afterward. The games will be played at Kapiolani park.

The clubs in the contest last year were those of the Lusitana, San Antonio and A Patria societies. In that series the Lusitana team won, thus acquiring the first leg on the beautiful prize cup put up by J. A. R. Vieira. This cup must be won twice before it becomes the property of any one club.

The three societies each have some excellent ball tossers and the games they will put up will be worth seeing.

GUN CLUB'S CLUB SHOOT TOMORROW

The seventh shoot of the Hawaiian Gun Club in the present series will take place Wednesday afternoon, beginning at 5 o'clock. This will be the most interesting contest of the lot, for it is next to certain that some one will win out, bringing the contest to a close. Harvey and Porter, who are tied for first place, will both be present and will have their mighty go on the home stretch. If either wins, the series ends right there. But if someone else pulls ahead (and that is possible with the heavy handicap allowance) the match will have to go on.

On account of the importance of this shoot, a general invitation is extended by the Hawaiian Gun Club to its friends to be present and witness the final go. All attending are assured of an interesting time.

TENNIS DOUBLES START TOMORROW

The first round in the men's doubles handicap tournament will be played Tuesday afternoon on the courts of the Beretania Tennis Club, as follows: At 4 o'clock—A. L. Lowrey (S) and E. S. Gee (S) vs. Theodor Richards (2) and A. Richards (2); A. R. Cunha (S) and C. G. Bockus (1) vs. R. G. E. Forster (2) and L. S. Connors (2). At 5 o'clock—W. L. Warren (S) and D. W. Anderson (S) vs. J. Macconell (3) and I. Hurd (3); A. L. Castle (S) and Capt. Low (S) vs. R. B. Rietow (1) and J. J. Page (1). Scratch men give one-half 15 to Class 1, 15 to Class 2, and 15 one half 15 to class 3. All matches will be three sets out of five.

KAPIOLANI GAMES LATE YESTERDAY

One of the largest crowds of the year attended the games in the Kapiolani Baseball League at Kapiolani park yesterday afternoon. The first game, between the Highlands and Tokiwas, was won by the former by a score of 12 to 2.

In the second game the All Hawaii failed to get out a team and forfeited to the Reach team. A friendly game was played, however, and resulted in a landslide for the Reach nine, the score being 9 to 1.

Next Sunday the Reach team will meet the Highlands. These teams are now tied for the championship. Many of the players in these teams are members of nines in the bigger leagues, and when they are all there the playing is the very best.

THE KAMEHAMEHA LEADS YACHT RACE

Yesterday's yacht race, as a race, was largely a failure, owing to light and variable winds. Only one boat, the Kamehameha, finished within the time limit and she drifted over the line in practically a dead calm. At the finish she was only nineteen minutes on the safe side.

The boats were late in making the start, it being 10 o'clock when they were sent off. The Gladys crossed the line first and she and the Helene held pretty well together towards Diamond Head. A collision between the Kamehameha and Hawaii 1 delayed both yachts at the start but when once off the Kamehameha gained on the leaders to the Koko Head turn. On the sail back to Pearl Harbor the Kam ran ahead and steadily widened the distance between herself and competitors until the finish as above stated.

The time of rounding the Koko Head mark was as follows: Kamehameha, 12:31; Hawaii, 1:01; Charlotte C., 1:08; Helene, 1:29. The Kamehameha rounded the bell buoy at the finish at 5:34 and passed the line at 5:41 seven hours and 41 minutes from the starting time.

The race was not a success from the landlubber's point of view, and hardly satisfactory from a yachtsman's standpoint. The wind was all to the bad, and all shortcomings may be charged up to that. The race will have the effect of stimulating other live events, however, and in that way will prove of value.

SAINTS WIN BIG DOUBLE VICTORY

At one mighty swoop Saturday afternoon the St. Louis college kiddies arose from last to third place in the interscholastic baseball series and are now only one leg behind the Kamehamehas. By special arrangement the game of Saturday counted not only as the game scheduled for that day but also stood for a postponed game between the Saints and Higgs, making it really two games in one. The score was 11 to 0 in favor of the small boys.

The Punahous have already won the championship of the season, so that only second place remains to be battled for. Next time, the Punahous will have to meet the Kamehamehas. Should the latter win the Kams will easily take second place, but should they lose they will be tied with the Saints for second place. Then will come the rub game.

Saturday's game was a good one up to the fourth innings, although in the first three innings the Saints had rather the best of it. They had been playing better ball from the first, the Higgs appearing unusually weak, particularly in the neighborhood of the battery. When the blow up came the Higgs went all to the bad and it was two innings before they were able to catch their breath. It was then too late, for the Saints had added six more runs to their credit. The game from that point on was without interest, it consisting merely of a vain attempt of the Higgs to recover an untainable position.
